Development Board for the SB0400 ABS Controller

FRDM-A-MOTABS2

Last Updated: Jul 17, 2026

The FRDM-A-MOTABS2 is a development board for the SB0400 two-wheel antilock braking system (ABS) controller. When paired with the S32K144EVB evaluation board, it enables rapid evaluation of ABS control behavior, microcontroller (MCU)-to-controller communication and software integration using the provided software development kit (SDK).
