NXP Debian Linux SDK Distribution for i.MX and Layerscape

NXPDEBIAN

Last Updated: Mar 13, 2025

The NXP Debian Linux SDK distribution for i.MX and Layerscape is a combination of NXP-provided kernel and boot loaders with a Debian distro user-space image. It provides the necessary drivers, tools, and libraries required to enable features of the Arm-based i.MX and Layerscape processors with a Debian distro user space image. It enables quick evaluation with widely available deb packages on select i.MX and Layerscape processors.
